MINISTER 33 YEARS

REV. J. W. UTTER, FORMER
GLENDALE PASTOR, RETIRES
AFTER LONG SERVICE

Rev. C. A. Cole, Geo. H. Staub, M. G. Musser, R. P. Jodon, wife and daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Susie Stem, E. H. Learned, wife and daughter Edith went to Covina Sunday afternoon to attend an all-day meeting held in the Christian Church there to celebrate the 33d anniversary of Rev. J. M. Utter's entrance into the ministry. Rev. Utter is retiring from the pastorate of the Covina church at his own urgent request, to spend a year on his little orange ranch at Corona. He has worked all the past 33 years without a vacation, spending those given him by the congregation he was serving, in holding evangelistic meetings to organize new congregations. One of these was the Glendale church, which he and P. B. Stout, evangelistic singer, organized in 1908, and he was the pastor of it for the first five years. Rev. Utter preached both morning and evening yesterday, at Covina. There was a dinner held in the basement of the church building at noon and in the afternoon addresses were made by Revs. Cole, Trundle, Kendrick and West, and several beautiful songs were given by Mr. Stout.

GLENDALE'S GREAT BUILDING RECORD

According to carefully compiled figures as published in the last issue of the Southwestern Builder and Contractor, Glendale is sixth of the cities of Southern California in amount of building permits issued in the first six months of 1920 and first in per cent of increase over the first six months of 1919. Los Angeles was first, of course, with a total of $24,197,639, an increase of nearly 200 per cent; Long Beach follows with $5,709,313, an increase of 112 per cent; then Fresno with $3,075,543, a 120 per cent increase; then Pasadena with $1,773,153, an increase of 232 per cent; then San Diego with $1,276,918, a decrease of 20 per cent. Sturdy Glendale then comes in with an increase of 890 per cent and a valuation of $1,025,440, and Santa Ana, claiming nearly 6000 greater population shows a valuation for her permits of $904,256, an increase of over 200 per cent above those of the first half of 1919.

LONELY SOLDIER BOYS WANT CORRESPONDENTS

Three lonely expatriated American soldiers, privates Ralph Spear, Willard Pritch and Lawrence Mercer, of Supply Co., 8th U. S. Infantry, A. F. in G., A. P. O. 927, Coblenz, Germany, have written the Evening News saying they have no folks and never receive any news from anyone in the good old U. S. A. They say they will be very thankful to correspond with some of the young people back in God's country.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

S. S. CONTEST—SERMONS ON THE COMMUNION AND THE CHRISTIAN'S ANCHOR

The "rivalry of the states" contest in the Central Christian Bible School was inaugurated yesterday, the native Californians having the right of way. There were 35 of them present and a committee appointed by them had decorated the auditorium with palm branches, asparagus ferns, dahlias, geraniums, pepper boughs and ribbon grass. Supt. Willard Learned, himself a native son, led the meeting, and it was considered a very successful opening of the contest. Iowa leads next Sunday and then Kansas.

The morning sermon by Pastor Cole was on the communion, and reasons were given for its observance every Lord's Day and its deep significance set forth. It is a monument to the Savior of mankind, said the speaker, greater than any in marble or bronze, and it brings to mind the cross and Him who gave His life thereon, every time it is observed.

In the evening the topic was "Will the Anchor Hold?" and the thought was that faith is the anchor of the Christian. Unless it is caught beneath the firm rocks and the cable connecting it with the Father is strong and enduring, it will not hold when the fierce storms of adversity arise. The special music at both preaching services and in the Sunday School were greatly enjoyed.

IS DEDICATED

THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH BUILDING FOR-MALLY SET APART

The Seventh-day Adventist church which has recently been remodeled and enlarged and moved to its present location at California and Isabel, was formally dedicated Saturday afternoon, free from debt. The interior was elaborately decorated with running vines, potted shrubs, palms, ferns and flowers and presented a very tropical scene such as the summer warmth of the day would suggest.

Many friends from surrounding cities and towns came to witness the dedication and to note the arrangement of the structure, which for simplicity, convenience and tastefulness combined with economy of means and space was a source of much comment.

The program was as follows:
Organ Voluntary, Prof. L. D. Andrews.

Silent Prayer.
Doxology.
Invocation, Elder W. D. MacLay.
Hymn, Congregation.
Scripture Reading, 1 Kings 8:22-53, Elder I. A. Ford.
History of Building Enterprise, Elder G. W. Reaser.
Duet, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," Drs. Earl and Floyd Gardner.
Sermon, Elder J. W. Christian.
Quartet, Mrs. Winnifred Hamer, Miss Olive Adams, Drs. Earl and Floyd Gardner.
Dedicatory Prayer, Elder J. O. Corliss.
Hymn, Congregation.
Benediction, Elder R. W. Munson.
Elder J. W. Christian in his sermon.

ELKS' CLUB DANCE

A big success was the dance at the Elks' Club House Saturday night which was a benefit for the White Star Patrol to pay the expenses of the team in attending the Elks' Convention, to be held at Sacramento where the team will compete for honors. Two orchestras furnished music in the lodge hall and in the banquet room below and during the evening a beautiful fancy drill lasting about twenty minutes was given by the team headed by Captain W. C. Wattles. The dance was quite informal.

CROSS COUNTRY

WILBUR FRANCY AND LOUIS
NUNN DRIVE NEW CARS
HOME FROM FACTORIES

Wilbur Francy and his brother-in-law, Louis Nunn, who for some time have been en route for the Pacific Coast by auto in cars purchased by them at the factories in the East, arrived at home Sunday. They encountered some hot and unpleasant weather in their transcontinental tour, according to the letters they dispatched to relatives here and were delayed somewhat by inability to get gasoline.

Wilbur and Louis left Glendale May 29th to go direct to the factories where the cars of their choice were made and drive them home. Both had purchased their machines, of course, from the local dealers, and had no trouble in getting them when they visited the factories. Wilbur's choice was a Buick 6 and he went to Flint, Mich., for it, while Louis went to Detroit for his Studebaker Big Six. They drove them to Chicago, where they visited relatives for a week or more, then started from the Windy City on June 15th, crossing the Mississippi River at Burlington, Iowa, and going to Mt. Pleasant, the old home, to spend a week or 10 days. On the 26th they left for Des Moines, where Louis has a brother, whom a day was spent with, then the journey home was resumed.

They came by way of Cheyenne, encountering a cloudburst when near there and Louis got stuck in the mud and had to dig himself out. The road from Cheyenne to Salt Lake City, they say, is the roughest they ever drove over. But from the latter city on it was not so bad, the roads through Utah, Nevada and a little corner of Arizona being quite passable. They came the last leg of the journey over the Arrowhead Trail and the Foothill boulevard. The actual traveling time from Des Moines to Glendale was 13 days and it was a most enjoyable trip despite the occasional bad roads and rain storms. They did considerable driving after night, so did not observe the country and the towns they passed through very closely.

WAR OF INTERVENTION

MARSHAL FOCH MOBILIZING TROOPS TO ASSIST POLAND
AGAINST BOLSHEVIKI

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

THE SPA, Belgium, July 12.—Polish Premier Grabski who is here attending the council of premiers, today telegraphed General Pelsudski at Warsaw, to open negotiations immediately for an armistice with the Bolsheviks.

It was learned on the best of authority that Marshal Foch has been instructed to mobilize the available allied forces for possible intervention between the Poles and the Bolsheviks. In the event that the Moscow government refuses to accept the proposal of the conference for an armistice, it was stated that the allies are ready to give Poland much assistance.

THIRD PARTY CONVENTIONS

MARKING TIME WHILE COMMITTEE TRIES TO REACH
BASIS OF AMALGAMATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 12.—Steps toward the organization of a third party for the coming campaign were being hastened today.

The various parties involved in the movement were holding separate conventions while a committee was busy with joint representatives of the various conventions formulating a basis for amalgamation.

The Labor Party convention practically suspended its business pending the report of the committee.

The Single Tax Party, after a meeting, caused it to become known that the party would not sacrifice its identity but would join the movement as far as supporting a third party presidential candidate was concerned.

The Committee of Forty-eight Convention held a formal meeting at which several leaders spoke. S. Thomasson of Minneapolis, national lecturer of the Non-Partisan League, discussed the activities of the league in South Dakota.

"We stole the Republican Party in that state and it has been a good party ever since," he declared.

At the mention of "Soviet Russia" the crowd cheered. "They have set us a good example," Thomasson said.

Thomasson was followed by Rev. R. W. Bagnall of Detroit, representing the National Association for the Advancement of the Colored People. He declared the negroes are becoming solidified and must be treated as Americans, and urged the convention to denounce lynchings and Jim Crow laws.

"Gunning for the Attorney General" was the theme of T. Swinburne Hale of New York. "Mr. Palmer sees red all the time even when he eats and sleeps," Hale declared. "We need men of courage like Louis Post, Assistant Secretary of Labor."

Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish Republic, followed Hale, and was cheered for a full minute before he started speaking. He pleaded the cause of Ireland.

Tremendous cheers greeted a partial report from the conference committee on the amalgamation of the various groups. Chairman Hays of the committee said it seemed probable that a general convention of all the groups would soon open.

CIVIL DISTURBANCES IN IRELAND

STATE OF TENSE EXPECTANCY AWAITING OUTCOME OF ORANGEMEN'S CELEBRATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, July 12.—One constabulary sergeant was killed and two others were injured today when a bomb exploded at Rathmore Barracks. A band of Sinn Feiners had previously attacked the barracks but were driven off.

Throughout Ireland there was a feeling of tense expectancy today awaiting the outcome of the Orangemen's celebration of the battle of Boyne.

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE IN VERMONT

GOVERNOR CLEMENT REFUSES TO CALL SPECIAL SES-SION TO RATIFY AMENDMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

RUTLAND, July 12.—Governor Clement of Vermont today issued a proclamation declining to call a special session of the legislature to make possible the ratification of women's suffrage.

GASOLINE SHORTAGE

PUBLIC UTILITIES BOARD SUMMONS OIL COMPANY RE-PRESENTATIVES TO INVESTIGATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Representatives of leading oil companies today were asked to meet with the Los Angeles Board of Public Utilities as an initial step in the Board's investigation of the gas shortage.

Inquiry will be made as to the stories circulated that large quantities of gas in storage are being held off the market, it was announced.

FAREWELL PARTY

MRS. HESTER TORREY ENTER-
TAINS ON EVE OF DEPART-
URE FOR THE NORTH

Mrs. Hester Torrey, of 245 South Orange street, Glendale, a buyer of infants' and juniors' wear in one of the largest Los Angeles stores, has accepted a position in the north, where her activities will cover a more extensive field—including women's as well as children's wear. She will go to New York this week in connection with her new duties.

Her work in Los Angeles has won for her an enviable and far-reaching reputation, while her personality has drawn to her a host of warm friends who very much regret her departure from Southern California. Thirty of these friends, women business associates, were entertained in her charming home on Saturday afternoon.

A platinum brooch, set with a diamond, was presented Mrs. Torrey as a token of their affectionate esteem.

Delicious refreshments, music and dancing were enjoyed.

KEEPING UP RECORD

MANY NEW RESIDENCES BUILD-ING IN GLENDALE THIS MONTH

Building permits aggregating more than $20,000, and all of them for residences or additions, have been taken out since Saturday at 9 a. m. up to Monday, 10 a. m. Among the buildings represented by these are an 8-room house and a garage for O. Sorenson at 722 Howard, to cost $4500, John Rommel contractor; a 5-room house and a garage costing the same amount of money, to be built at 622 North Jackson by Contractor T. H. Addison for Thos. Joyce; a 5-room residence and a garage, 712 North Isabel, for H. E. Rommel, to be built by John Rommel at a cost of $3500; a 6-room house and a garage for Frank Ziskind on Opechee Way, to cost $2000; a 4-room residence for A. R. Trautwein at 210 North Isabel, to be erected by C. Snyder at a cost of $2000, and a 4-room residence at 619 North Orange for J. G. Van am Berg, the cost of which is given as $800. The permits for July thus far have totaled more than $60,000, and all but one are for residences, additions or garages.

HORSE SHOE CLUB RECEIVES TWO GIFTS

The Glendale Horse Shoe Club received two highly appreciated gifts last week. The city trustees, at Thursday night's meeting, granted the club free use of city water for the grounds and on Friday James W. Horne of 1445 Valley View Road presented a standard croquet set to replace one of the old ones, the balls of which, Mr. Horne said he had observed, were not perfectly round and did not roll smoothly. With two good croquet grounds and several horse shoe pitching spaces the club is equal to entertaining all the players who wish to indulge.

VISION OF BEASTS

DANIEL'S PROPHECIES RE-
MARKABLY FULFILLED,
SAYS EVANGELIST

"Daniel's vision of the four great beasts is a remarkable delineation of the rise and fall of four great world monarchies," declared Evangelist C. S. Prout last night, as he began the study of "God's Cartoons of the Nations" by basing his study on the 7th chapter of the book of Daniel. The tent located on the corner of Central avenue and Harvard was well filled with an eager and interested audience. By means of his stereopticon Mr. Prout threw upon the screen the four beast symbols of this prophecy.

He clearly showed that the first, the lion, represented the universal monarchy of Babylon, which was established in 747 B. C. and continued until 538 B. C. Texts were read to show that other prophets like Isaiah and Jeremiah had called Babylon the Mon. Jer. 50:43, 44; Hab. 1:6-8.

"Medo-Persia is represented by the bear, Grecia by the leopard beast and Rome, the mighty iron monarchy, is beyond question represented by the fourth beast, a nondescript. Rome in its pagan form is here first presented. It arose to become dreadful and terrible and strong exceedingly, accomplished its purposes seemingly unhindered in the world, broke in pieces all opposition, and

CHAS. H. YOUNG WISHED TO LIVE, DIE AND BE BURIED
IN CITY OF HOMES

Chas. H. Young died last Friday in Clara Barton Hospital of cancer of the liver, from which he had suffered many months. He lived at 1422 East Harvard for several years but a few months ago moved to his 5-acre ranch on South Verdugo Road, where he went into the poultry business on a large scale, fitting up the place in the best manner. An examination by the doctors after he had been taken to the hospital disclosed that an operation was hopeless, so none was attempted, but he believed, when he came from under the influence of the anaesthetic that a successful operation had been performed and began making plans for the future. But when informed that he had but a short time to live, he said all was well, and he died in perfect peace. He had long before declared he would live, die and be buried in Glendale, and had bought a crypt in the mausoleum at Forest Lawn to receive his body after death came.

Funeral services were held this forenoon in the Little Church of the Flowers, an old friend and former pastor officiating, and the mortal remains of this exemplary citizen and Christian gentleman were reverently laid away in the crypt.

A widow and a daughter, Miss Gladys, are left to mourn the untimely death of this good man.

REDS TAKE SWEET REVENGE IN HORSE SHOE CONTEST

Capt. Osborne's team of Reds jumped all over Capt. Walter Nicles' Blues Saturday afternoon on the Horse Shoe Club's grounds, in revenge for the defeat of the previous Saturday and they certainly rubbed it in hard, winning 22 out of the 30 games played, making 591 points and scoring 241 ringers. The Blues won but 8 games, with 462 points and 216 ringers. The latter are not discouraged, however, their captain says, as other Saturday afternoons will come. They are not at all blue over their defeat even if they are the Blues.

HIGH SCHOOL PLANS

TRUSTEES FAVOR BUNGALOWS
IN PREFERENCE TO TEMPO-RARY AUDITORIUM

Trustees of the High School district met Friday evening to consider tentative plans to be submitted by Architect C. C. Rittenhouse for the relief of the student congestion that will be increased by the advent of big classes graduated from intermediate, Cerritos and Eagle Rock grammar schools. His plan covered a temporary auditorium building somewhat after the order of those erected by Billy Sunday, the evangelist. Finding that it would take too long a time to build to be available at the opening of school, the trustees favored more quickly constructed bungalows which could be used as class rooms, because class rooms are the most urgent need of the school. Mr. Rittenhouse is to submit plans along that line at a meeting to be held Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

BACK FROM BIG BEAR

DR. AND MRS. HOGUE HAD A
GOOD REST, BUT NOT MUCH GOOD FISHING

Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Hogue and Benly Hogue got back from Big Bear Sunday evening in good health and spirits, much rested and invigorated by their stay in the mountains. The doctor reports the fishing rather poor and has considerable to say about the atrocious man service which is causing a great big protest from men of big business who went into the mountains as he did for a few days' recreation expecting they would be able to keep in touch with business by correspondence and whose mail failed to reach them. He says he received one letter of many sent him during his stay there; that was received on the 10th and was mailed in Los Angeles on the 1st. He said maybe they could establish an air route for mail transportation as aeroplanes from March Field on duty as fire scouts are sailing over Big Bear all the time. Thus far no fires of magnitude have occurred in the San Bernardino reserve.

MR. AND MRS. H. N. PARRY HURT

Mrs. David Hibben of East Laurel street received a telephone message this morning from her brother, who was on his way from Riverside to Los Angeles on an auto stage, telling of an automobile accident they had run onto at El Monte, in which two persons from Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Parry, of 517 South Louise, were hurt, but not fatally, he thought, and a Glendale man whose name is Cavell, of N. Cedar St. Mrs. Hibben was asked to get word to the home of the Parrys. Neighbors of the Parrys are trying to locate them and get additional particulars. Mrs. Hibben expected her brother would arrive in Glendale in a short time.

HOUSE WARMING

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Martins, who have recently completed a large and beautiful home on Crenshaw boulevard, Los Angeles, entertained a group of about twenty guests, the greater number from Glendale, Friday evening. The house was beautifully decorated with dark red dahlias and at the close of the evening a delicious buffet supper was served by the hostess. A portion of the evening was devoted to Bunko, in which Mrs. Charles Temple and Warren Roberts made high scores. After that a series of charades was played. The Glendale guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stamps, Dr. and Mrs. H. Russell Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Temple and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts.

AUTO COLLISION ON WEST BROADWAY

R. C. Nichols of Pasadena driving a Ford roadster belonging to the Crown City Transfer & Storage Co. of that city, had just turned in on Broadway from the San Fernando Road, Saturday afternoon, when his car was struck by one driven by Mrs. Florence C. Morrison, also of Pasadena, who was driving west. Mr. Nichols, in his report, says his car was knocked 40 feet, but he was not hurt. Mrs. Morrison received some slight cuts about the face but was able to proceed on home. The police report of the accident states that just before the collision Mrs. Morrison had run over a little boy, Billy Ford by name, living at 573 West Broadway, but the lad was so little injured that he got up and walked away. The wheels of the car did not touch him, fortunately.

"Modest" is probably redundant in the expression of the meaning of the Ohio judge who declares women applying to him for divorce must wear more modest clothing.

A proposal to introduce dimes and nickels into circulation in Yukon Territory has been rejected because such coins are too small to buy anything. That handicap is overcome here by using a lot of them.

He is making a study of scenic points of interest with a view to determining where will be the best place for him to take his much-needed rest. His son, Louis LeGrand, is now employed in a book-binding establishment in Los Angeles.

An excellent Christian Endeavor meeting was held at the Glendale Presbyterian Church led by Mrs. James Newton and attended by about forty of the young people of the church. Announcement was made that a big meeting in which the Intermediate and Young People's C. E.'s would unite Sunday evening next following the twilight communion service, and that Howard Brown would be the leader.

MAN AND BEAST

"IS A MAN BETTER THAN A SHEEP?" THE THEME OF DR. E. W. EDMONDS

At the Glendale Presbyterian Church the morning service was dedicated to the elders and deacons, Pastor W. E. Edmonds' theme being "The Church at the Cross Roads" for which a text was taken from Isaiah 30:21. Three deacons were re-installed and one man was ordained.

The evening discourse was No. 7 of the Live Questions series. For the theme "Is a Man Better Than a Sheep?" Matthew 12:12 furnished the text. The speaker said in part:

"This is a question easily asked and not so easily answered. Some one has remarked upon how much longer is the life of a man than that of a sheep. The oak tree lives longer than the lily, but the lily has its place in nature no less than the oak. God has endowed His creatures with wonderful powers. The vulture can see further than man and the scent of the hound is marvelous. Have you ever seen in the spring of the year a robin hopping around over the lawn? It was listening for the sound of the earth-worms stirring under ground, a noise which we could not hear at all. A sparrow does not fall except Our Father knows of it.

"Man has reason, so has the sheep. How many of you can define the difference between instinct and reason. We have to reach it through a process of elimination. Man has something the sheep has not. Man has an immortal soul which brings him into the realm of God. God breathed into him the breath of life and man became a living soul. We can look into God's face and say: "Our Father." That differentiates a man from a sheep. My brother, how much value do you place on your soul? In order to save your soul from everlasting death God sent Jesus Christ into the world to die.

"My brother, open your heart to the voices of God. Take the King of Glory into your life. Man is endowed with a sovereign will. He is the only one of God's creatures who can say 'no' to God. Will you not say 'yes' to him tonight?"

RETURN FROM YOSEMITE

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Clark returned Sunday from an auto trip and two weeks' stay in Yosemite Valley. They went in by way of Madeira and Wawona and came out through the Tioga Pass which brought them out by way of Mono Lake and the Owens River Valley. In spite of reports to the contrary they found the roads excellent for mountain thoroughfares with which they have had sufficient experience not to expect boulevard quality. Dr. Farrell and family were with them. They, of course, camped in the Yosemite and on the journey and found conditions quite ideal. Yosemite was very beautiful with plenty of water in the streams that feed the falls, and many visitors sharing their pleasure, several of them from Glendale, as they met there the H. V. Henrys, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guthrie, Arthur Lindley and his daughter, Miss Coral Griffith, and others.

Sallstrom, a nephew, Ralph Sallstrom, and a brother, Charles, of Chicago, also two aunts, Mrs. Dr. Wilson of Burbank and Mrs. John Robert White of Glendale. Miss Sallstrom was a graduate of the Los Angeles Normal School and had taught for one year near Ontario. Funeral services will be held from the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Company Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Interment will be in Grand View Memorial Park Cemetery with Rev. Clyde Monroe Crist of the Methodist Church officiating. Miss Sallstrom leaves a host of friends to mourn her loss. She was of a retiring disposition and greatly beloved by all who knew her.

COACHELLA ONIONS

C. H. HOLLIS, A VISITOR FROM
THERMAL, CORRECTS MIS-
INFORMATION

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hollis, who have leased the Mattison B. Jones bungalow on South Brand boulevard are from Thermal in the Coachella Valley where Mr. Hollis is one of the heavy onion producers and shippers. In company with his associate in the business, W. E. Ulrick, he shipped out of the valley the present season 220 carloads, part of them grown on his own acreage, and part the product of other ranches.

Because of conflicting statements which have been published relative to the profits of onion production he thinks the situation demands some clarifying, the more so because so much Glendale capital is invested in the Coachella. He quoted letters purporting to come from the valley that he had seen in print declaring that all the onion raisers in the Coachella had made money, and on the other hand articles in produce journals printed in New York to the effect that onion growers in that section were going bankrupt because of their losses. Said he:

"Early shipments of White Bermudas brought $3 to $3.50 and Yellow Bermudas $2.50 per crate, but the price fell rapidly after the first of May and I would say that $1.75 per crate would be the top figure for the average returns of the onion crop there. There are at least fifty carloads that have not been shipped and will not be shipped. Many of the last shipments scarcely brought freight charges. I know this from reliable reports and from my own experience.

"The weather got so hot along about the 25th of May that it sunburned a lot of the onions in the field and dealers were very skeptical about buying them after that. Then, too, the onions coming in from all parts of the south and east and from Stockton the last of May and first of June affected the market. The strike situation was another factor. When we first started shipping we could not get the cars we needed for about ten days. Texas shipped about 6000 cars and at least two-thirds of our crop and that of Texas were on wheels at the same time rolling toward the different markets causing congestion at almost every leading city in the United States. In some places they had to shunt them onto country tracks and did not make deliveries in the city.

"It should be remembered, however, that the onions we raise are not a drop in the bucket to the output of Texas which, as stated, totaled about 6000 cars against our 1500, and it was the late onions on which the losses occurred, onions that were not planted until January. The proper planting time is October to the middle of December if they are to reach the early market. Late plantings are a lottery which may return a profit if there is a small Texas and Louisiana acreage and if other conditions are favorable.

"The expense of producing the crop has doubled. When I first went to the valley five years ago I figured I could grow onions at 50¢ a crate f. o. b. cars. This year the cost averaged about $1.10 per crate. The cost of the crates is twice what it was five years ago and labor costs have increased out of all proportion. We used to get labor for $1.50 for a day of nine hours. Now labor demands $4.50 to $5 per day and we are not getting anything like as much work in the nine hours as we did when we paid $1.50."

Mr. Hollis says the nights in the Coachella are much cooler than in the Imperial Valley because of the wind from the mountains which blows down upon it through the Gorgonio pass. The day temperatures at this season average 90 to 95 degrees though the mercury on rare occasions has climbed to 123 degrees.

mon spoke in a very practical way of the office and duties of the church and its members and their relation to the work of God in the earth. "God's message to the church," he said, "is a call to service. He who uplifts others, uplifts himself. Activity is a sign of Christian growth. God calls every believer to some form of service and each is to work in his respective sphere whether small or great.

"Not by forms or ceremonies is the work to be accomplished, but by the spirit of God, which uses man as a channel through which to operate. The work of God is world-wide and is not to be circumscribed by time or space, for out of all nations and tongues will His chosen people be gathered.

"The church is the light of the world, but the life of Christ is the light of the church which leaves no occasion for boasting on the part of those who are to act as reflectors. Service, not sleep, is the slogan of the church; work not rest is its watchword.

"The church should stand to the world as a city of refuge to which the oppressed can flee and find shelter and protection. Nothing can destroy the foundation of the city of refuge of which Christ is the foundation and whose Word is its light."

ANOMALIES IN FOREIGN COMMERCE

Figures on our foreign commerce continue to upset preconceived theories relating thereto. The official statement issued last week shows that the value of our exports in May increased $55,000,000, as compared with the preceding month, while the value of imports decreased $64,000,000. This reverses calculations made earlier in the year, when trade authorities expressed the opinion that our exports would continue to fall off, owing to the inability of foreigners to finance their needs, while imports would increase because of the necessity of foreign countries to redress the balance of trade against them.

Up to this time, however, the trend of the international trade current has been in the direction forecast by students of such movements. Thus in the 11 months of our fiscal year ended with May the increase in exports of merchandise was only 18 per cent over the corresponding period last year, whereas the increase in our imports of foreign-made goods was no less than 67 per cent. The total value of these imports for 11 months was $4,686,000,000, which surpasses all previous records. Notwithstanding the balance of trade in favor of the United States for the 11 months amounted to $2,788,000,000, we imported only $124,000,000 gold during this period, while our exports of the yellow metal amounted to $461,000,000.

The recent economic troubles in Japan began with a sudden shifting in international trade against that country, arousing fear on the part of Japanese bankers of a drain on the country's gold. Apparently there is no ground for similar fear in the United States at the moment, but the large increase in the percentage of imports of merchandise during the last 11 months is at least interesting, and it will become more so when Germany is rehabilitated industrially and resumes her former importance in world trade.

carried on relentless persecution against Christianity in its infancy." He continued, in part, as follows: "As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise." The great Roman Empire was made up of a diversity of distinct peoples; and in the year 476 A. D., when the empire was finally disintegrated, the peoples became ten nations, the ten divisions of the Roman Empire.

"The prophecy continues, 'Another horn (or power) shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings.' Verse 24. The 'three kings' referred to are, without question, three of those ten kings, or kingdoms, into which Western Rome was divided. What power can be represented by this little horn?

"What power can fulfill the specifications—rising after those ten kingdoms to assume authority and control over three of these kingdoms? Notice two or three other specifications of the little horn—with eyes like a man and mouth speaking great things, words against the Most High, and wearing out the saints of the Most High, and thinking even to change times and the law of God. Verse 25. There is only one power on earth that can fulfill those specifications, and that is the power known in history as Papal Rome."

Mr. Prout showed by various authentic historians how the Papacy arose to temporal supremacy from 493 A. D. to 538 A. D. and that in that year the Pope became known as the "corrector of heretics." From the History of the World by Ridpath, Vol. 4, page 418, he read:

"This epoch in history should not be passed over without reference to the rapid growth of the papal church."

The speaker showed how the Papal church of those centuries fulfilled every specification of the divine predictions concerning the "little horn" power. He laid special emphasis upon the statement "he shall think to change times and the law."

He said further: "It was in the year 1798 that the head of the Papal church was taken captive by a French general and deprived of his temporal power. Thus the prophet said he should continue 1260 years as from 538 A. D. till 1798.

"Then the judgment shall sit and the books will be opened, preparatory to Christ's return to earth. The standard in this heavenly judgment work is God's law as found in the Ten Commandments, written on tables of stone. This is the only writing of all the Bible ever written by God's own finger. It is known as the royal law in James 2:8. 'So speak ye and so do as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.' Verse 12.

"It may seem strange, and yet how striking that the Papacy would endeavor to change the law, the very standard by which the lives of men are judged. How evident it is that any power which should attempt to change the law of God, and especially the only time period in the whole decalogue, should receive such notice in prophecy."

This lecture from beginning to end was very impressive as evidenced by the close-listening audience. Mr. Prout announced that there would be no meeting Monday evening, but that Tuesday evening, Dr. Barsoon, a converted Babylonian, would speak upon his marvelous conversion and the Mohammedan faith as exposed by the light of Christianity. Dr. Barsoon is a noted Oriental orator.

The persistency with which Elwell is kept in the news dispatches indicates that he is causing almost as much mystery in his death as he did misery in his life.

THIRTY WARS

The first anniversary of peace found the world with 30 wars.

The number fluctuates from day to day, but while there may be only 29 tomorrow, it is almost certain that there will be 31 the next day.

It may be debatable how far European nations could interfere to bring the wars to a close. But apparently it has not yet occurred to them that they could keep their hands off, thus withholding the quiet encouragement which is the backbone of most of the wars.

No reserve has been shown by the European press in criticizing the United States, and it has been not at all backward in questioning our good faith. It is not quite clear why all the good faith should be on one side, and to many persons it appears as though the situation in Europe provides the opportunity for our critics to set an example.

The census gives Gettysburg, Pa., 4,439 population. Fifty-seven years ago, however, the number was larger.

The profiteer has had his day in this country, but there may be something in the fear of the New York Journal of Commerce that the downward movement of prices may cause the pendulum to swing to the other extreme, causing over-production and unemployment. Fair prices now for all necessities of life will prevent this.
